

Harvest Food Pantry

Volunteers needed! The Harvest Food Pantry offers a fully stocked clothes closet and gives away close to two tons of canned food, bread, and fresh produce each month while serving 100-120 families. The Harvest Pantry has been a regular site for the Yale Day of Service and always popular. But Service isn't just one day anymore!

We need you to part of a team of Yale volunteers on Saturday morning March 19. This is a great way support a great organization and to truly serve the community. During the morning you'll do good and meet some great people.

When: Saturday March 19, 2011 9 a.m. - noon

Where: 459 Putnam Ave., Cambridge

Contact: Esteban Tapetillo, '09 esteban.tapetillo@aya.yale.edu

Excel Academy

When: Saturday mornings through May

Where: Excel Academy, middle school in E. Boston

Description: tutor math to middle school students with other Yalies

Contact: Esteban Tapetillo, '09 esteban.tapetillo@gmail.com

Spring Externships

When: Spring Break

Where: various locations needed

Description: need business opportunities for current Yale Students

Contact: Murray Wheeler, '64 murwheels@gmail.com

Harvest Food Pantry

When: Saturday, March 19

Where: Harvest Food Pantry in Cambridge

Description: distribute food & clothing on Saturday morning with other Yalies

Contact: Esteban Tapetillo, '09 esteban.tapetillo@gmail.com

Yale Day of Service

When: Saturday May 14, 2011

Where: various locations around Massachusetts

Description: seeking Yalies to volunteer their ideas for sites and to participate

Contact: outreach@yaleboston.org

Yale Book Awards

When: May / June 2011
Where: various high schools around greater Boston
Description: over 100 books were presented last year; need presenters and sponsors
Contact: Richard Bowen, '70 rbowen@e-winslow.com